

SHOULD GO TO GEORGIA.

The APPEAL hopes that Mr. Will U. Mackey expects to be elected by Republican votes, and his friends are working among Republicans to secure this class of support.

It would seem to the most unprejudiced mind that Mr. Mackey, in view of his feeling toward Northern Republicans ought not to ask anyone of that party to vote for him.

In conversation with a gentleman in this city, (whose name the APPEAL will give Mr. Mackey whenever he calls for it), he stated that in the event of another war between the North and South, he would go South and enlist in the Southern army.

While the APPEAL does not question the right of any Southern Democrat to hold these opinions, no one should hold them who, after leaving the South, came North to receive his education, as Mr. Mackey has done.

In fact, a man who is not yet forty years of age, (and to whom the bitterness of the civil war can only be an indistinct memory), ought not to hold such opinions as Mr. Mackey has openly expressed.

If he holds them, however, he could hardly expect any regular Republican to vote for him, and if the truth must be told, very few Democrats.

Mr. Mackey would make a better run for State Printer in Georgia or Alabama than Nevada.

ALAS, TOO TRUE.

These are squally times for candidates. He hears all manner of rumors as to trades being made that are calculated to shut him off from the public crib; every old bum in the country for all the way from a short bit to ten or twenty dollars, according to the standard of respectability and "influence" of the would be "promoter." Doubt, fear and suspicion all have a whack at his nerves, until he crawls off to his couch to dream of defeat by the jobbery of his party associates. The man who sacrifices himself on the altar of his country's good has a hard row to hoe, but in fifteen days more the story will be told; the people will have had their say and it is hoped they will select wisely, for then the profits on a fifteen-dollar suit of clothes will cut no figure in the political world for two years, and we shall all settle down to the more stern realities of life and rustle for bread and butter on the outside, and may a kind Providence temper the wind to the shorn lambs who get left in the coming contest. Be happy while you may; live in hope if you die in despair. Gazette.

A CHANCE FOR LIGHT.

While the Democratic press is busy digging up mean things to say about candidates, it might be a good idea for them to get the particulars relative to the hanging of Lucky Bill in Genoa and the shooting of Rodgers some years ago on the Warm Springs Road.

Any Democratic editor who wishes to learn the particulars of these two affairs can get them in Carson Valley.

The Jones reception in Virginia City was a magnificent tribute to one of the foremost champions of silver in the United States. Men of both parties took a hand in the outpouring. We will show the East that silver is not a partisan question in Nevada.

There seems to be a strong odor of secession floating about both the head and tail of the Democratic ticket.

The assertion that the Democrats of Ormsby have placed a strong ticket in the field, does not seem borne out by the facts.

Bar silver 1 09.

The Vote Contest.

Platform and Resolutions

The Republican party of Ormsby County, in convention assembled, renews its pledge of faith in the principles of the platform party, which in the future will continue to outlast the people's best and most enlarged freedom, and with a view to the State, and the perpetuity of our form of government.

Resolved, That the Convention pledges its nominees to rigid economy in the administration of the affairs of the county, and the State of Nevada, in the interest of all the people, and to reduce the rate of taxation to the sum consistent with good government.

Resolved, That we heartily approve the efforts of John P. Jones, William M. Stewart and Congressman H. F. Martin in behalf of the remission of the debt of the county, and the relief of the people from the burden of the debt of the county.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the action of the late Governor, J. C. Stevenson and the late Lieutenant Governor, H. C. Davis, and extend our sincere sympathy to the bereaved widows and orphans.

We most heartily endorse the platform adopted by the Republican State Convention at Carson City, as a basis and conservative declaration of principles suited to the necessities and demands of the people of the State.

T. R. Hofer, A. C. Hofer, O. D. Smith.
